

Admission Clerk

Department	Patient Services
Location	Cintocare, Menlyn Maine, Pretoria
Closing date	15 April 2025

JOB DESCRIPTION

The primary responsibility of an admission clerk is to aid patients in completing necessary forms and documents for hospital admission, facilitating their entry into the hospital system for required medical procedures. This role demands professionalism, friendliness, and efficiency, with a sharp focus on meeting the needs of both patients and visitors.

Aside from assisting with admissions, the admission clerk handles various administrative tasks. This includes gathering patient identification documents, explaining hospital policies and visiting hours, generating and affixing stickers, and preparing all relevant paperwork for transfer to the appropriate ward.

Moreover, the admission clerk plays a crucial role in managing the hospital's financial risks. This involves ensuring bed letters are signed, verifying medical aid coverage before admission, and collecting co-payments from patients as necessary.

The ideal candidate for this position should be prepared to work both day and night shifts, as the role requires rotation between these duties.
